Be seated 5 minutes before showtime. Doors will close and reopen only between numbers.

Seating Concerns

- A limited block of seats is reserved to address significant, verified issues after the event.
- For any ticketing or seating questions, wait until the week after the showcase and contact The Legacy Dance Studio.
- Do not attempt to resolve seating in the lobby or during the performance. Disruptions may lead to removal without refund (zero tolerance).

Theater Etiquette & Expectations

Please follow these rules so every guest—and every dancer—enjoys a smooth, professional show:

- 1. Keep off the stage. Do not sit, stand, lean, or place belongings on any part of the stage at any time.
 - 2. Zero-tolerance removal. Anyone who steps onto the stage and delays the show will be escorted out immediately—no warnings, no refunds.
 - 3. Stay seated while numbers are in progress. Enter or exit the auditorium only during transitions between pieces.
 - 4. Respectful conduct is mandatory. Excessive yelling, confrontation, or disrespect toward staff or guests is grounds for immediate removal without refund.
 - 5. Show your support with applause. Cheer and clap—our performers love it—but keep noise polite and measured.

Parking

- Primary parking is in the theater lot (first-come, first-served).
 - Additional street parking is available and may require a short walk, plan accordingly.

All tickets are non-refundable and subject to change. Event dates, times, and seating charts may be adjusted as needed; seating discrepancies may occur and will be managed at the discretion of Etix, and the News Journal Staff the week following the Showcase.

All parents, friends and family or patrons of The Legacy Dance Studio need to purchase a ticket to all Showcases.

Theater behavior and etiquette must always be observed. Please do not delay the show, sit on, or block the stage area, or engage in disruptive behavior. Any yelling or disrespect toward The Legacy Dance Studio staff, News-Journal Center staff, or guests will not be tolerated and may result in removal from the event without refund. Zero tolerance.

By attending, you agree to follow all theater policies.

Thank you for helping us create a positive experience for everyone.
